

Make Sparkly, Colorful Unicorn Poop Cookies!

Marigold is far too refined to ever use the word poop, but Phoebe knows delicious cookies when she tastes them! With an adult's help, make this sweet treat to enjoy with your friends.

INGREDIENTS: Store-bought refrigerated sugar cookie dough, four-pack of food colors, shiny sprinkles, edible glitter

INSTRUCTIONS:

- 1 Split the dough into four equal pieces and place each one in a separate bowl.
- 2 Add one food color to each bowl and stir to mix completely with the dough.
- 3 Refrigerate the bowls for 30 minutes.
- 4 Take a small piece of dough from each bowl. Roll each one on a counter or cutting board to make a rope-like shape. Then coil the four different colored pieces into a cookie shape until you've used all the dough.
- 5 Follow the directions on the cookie dough package to bake and cool.
- 6 Decorate with your favorite colors of sparkly sprinkles and edible glitter.

Makes about 24 cookies.
