BUBBLE MIXTURE—WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- Large container (bucket, Tupperware)
- 6 cups water
- 1/2 cup cornstarch
- 1/2 cup dish soap (Blue Dawn works best)
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 tablespoon glycerin

In a large container,
mix the constarch and
water together.

Add the rest of the ingredients and stir gently. Try not to make a bunch of froth.

Let the mixture sit for an hour, stirring occasionally.

BUBBLE WAND— WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- String (approx 4 ft.)
- Two straws (without bend)
- Positive attitude

Thread the string
through the two straws.

Tie off the ends of the string.

BOOM!
Bubble time!

Hold the wand by the straws and dip fully into the mixture. When you take the wand out, pull the straws
apart, and you'll be making bubbles in no time!

Rhode Island Johnny Cake Recipe

I get to do one?!

Johnnycakes are a scrumptious and easy breakfast we make here in Rhode Island

Like a corn Pancake!

INGREDIENTS

- 1 1/4 cups of water
- 1 cup fine ground cornmeal
- 1 teaspoon of granulated sugar
- 1 teaspoon of salt
- 1 teaspoon of unsalted butter or oil

With a grown-up's help, bring the water to a boil.

Combine the cornmeal, sugar, and salt in a heatproof bowl.

Stir in the boiling water until the mixture has the consistency of mashed potatoes.

Let the batter rest for 5-10 minutes while you warm up a frying pan over medium heat.

Add the butter or oil for frying.

Drop the batter into the pan by the tablespoon and flatten with a spatula.

Let the johnnycakes cook 5-8 minutes per side until the cake is golden brown.

Serve the johnnycakes warm with butter and maple syrup

Enjoy a Rainy Day WALK

Ever take a walk in the rain? I HIGHLY recommend it!

I do
enjoy the sound of the rain on my
jacket

And a cold rain
always makes me
feel better

Ha! Who could forget about puddle
jumping?

And always have a warm place to go after your walk

Make sure
it's not too cold,
though

I like to close my eyes and
just listen!

I imagine
a towel might
be handy

I'm counting
this as a shower

Wooooo!!

Oop. There
goes the
shirt

Have fun,
be safe, and
enjoy your
rainy day
walk!

Ohh-kay
