Harmless Pranks to Pull:

- Lay a sheet of bubble wrap under a rug.
- Tape a long piece of string to a dollar bill. When someone reaches for it, yank it away.
- Hide all the spoons in the house.
- Put a rubber band around the kitchen sink sprayer and then wait for someone to turn on the water.
- Mouth words but don't make a sound, so someone thinks they've lost their hearing.
- Speak in a fake language.
- Draw and cut out silly faces then tape them on the glass frame of a family portrait.
- With a friend, select a random word like "water", "dog", or "hungry". When you hear anyone say it, react with a ridiculous action like jumping, mooing, or whistling.
